Do you work to support young children?

If you hold any of the following positions:

- Teachers, assistant teachers, aides, and paraprofessionals
- Directors and administrators
- Trainers, coaches, and consultants
- Early childhood and school-age faculty and students
- Advocates and other early childhood supporters

You should join The Aspire Registry, a system designed to support you.

How do you become a member?

1

Create your online account

Provide your personal information and verify your email address before building your Individual Profile.

2

Build your Individual Profile

Enter your educational background, employment history, training certifications, and other credentials. Be sure to include supporting documentation for verification.

3

Submit your Profile

Once you've entered all relevant information and documentation, our team will review your information to activate your membership.

What are the benefits of an active membership?

Maintaining an active Individual Profile offers several benefits to you, including:

- Full access to a complete, online professional portfolio
- Support in finding professional development opportunities
- Your needs represented in important workforce policy decisions

Build your Aspire profile and build your future.

As a member of The Aspire Registry, you have access to several professional documents:

Aspire Membership Card

A plastic membership card and key tag with a QR code that links to your Aspire profile. Present it during any professional development session to gain immediate credit on your profile without needing to upload training certificates.

Aspire Certificate

An acknowledgment of your participation in The Aspire Registry and your commitment to serving children and families.

Professional Development Record

An organized report of your training, related coursework, and employment history. You can use this record to supplement your resume to share with prospective employers or monitor your professional progress.
